

MASTER CHIEF PETTY OFFICER JACK GOODHUE

Health Services Technician Rating Force Master Chief

Master Chief Petty Officer Goodhue was selected as the US Coast Guard's Health Services Technician Rate Force Master Chief and assigned to U. S. Coast Guard Headquarters in August 2002. Master Chief Goodhue transferred to his new position from Integrated Support Command Boston, Boston MA where he was assigned as the Health Services Division's clinic administrator.

Master Chief Goodhue is a native of Fairhaven Massachusetts. He Graduated from Fairhaven High School in 1973. He completed Basic Military Training at US Coast Guard Training Center Cape May, NJ in November 1979. He graduated from the US Coast Guard Basic Hospital Corpsman School in December 1980. His first assignment as a Health Services Technician was at U. S. Coast Guard Air Station Borinquen, PR.

Other assignments include two separate tours at Coast Guard Headquarters Washington DC, U. S. Coast Guard Support Center New York, NY, U. S. Coast Guard Integrated Support Command Boston, Boston MA, U. S. Army Medical Equipment and Optical School, Aurora CO, USCGC CAMPBELL (WMEC 909), and USCGC POLAR STAR (WAGB-10). Master Chief Goodhue is also a graduate of the U. S. Navy's Senior Enlisted Academy.

Master Chief Goodhue's personal awards include three CG Commendation Medals, three CG Achievement Medals, and seven CG Good Conduct awards. He is authorized to permanently wear the U. S. Coast Guard Cuttermen's Insignia.